

Home Exercises and Activities from the OT/PT Department #8

Core Stability:

Have your child sit on the ball to increase their core strength. If you do not have a ball, you can have your child sit on an unstable surface like a pillow or a pool float.

Upper Body Strengthening:

Have your child take a ball on a walk against a wall. Have child roll the ball up and down and along the wall.